You folks up there in Washington at Media Matters, you do know what goes around comes around. The stuff you're trying to feed Americans like myself is really, really gonna come back and bite you in the ass. And I may be one of the people that you really don't want to come up and visit your offices. So, remember what goes around comes around. And there's more intelligent Americans that don't believe your crap then there are young people that have their head up their butts.
